Research Competition
Graduate students compete for the honor of the best research award. Sponsored by Compunetix.

Marketplace
Local and international high-tech firms share information about career opportunities. Hosted by the CS Graduate Student Organization.

Scavenger e-Hunt
Compete for prizes by visiting marketplace booths as prompted by a kiosk.

Poster Competition
Posters of undergraduate projects and graduate research compete for multiple awards. Sponsored in part by Google.

Speaker
Dr. Robert Sclabassi will discuss the eButton, a miniature wearable sensing device running Android with audio and video recording, GPS, motion sensors, and more that can be used for health monitoring and other ubiquitous computing applications.

Digital Media Competition
Students, faculty, and staff show video and graphic clips of life in computer science. Winners will receive a prize.

Business Idea Competition
Submit your innovative business ideas and win money (plus coaching on how to turn your idea into a real business). CEI is happy to sponsor a $250 cash prize on behalf of the Industry Board for the winner of the Business Idea Competition.

Computer Science Social
A social for industry representatives, alumni, faculty, graduate students, and staff will be held at 4:30 p.m. in 5317 Sennott Square. Sponsored by Vivisimo.
