

Chapter 1 Quiz (CS 1590, 1/17/2013)

Name:

1. Matching (draw 3 lines across the columns to show the matches)

|                 |   |
|-----------------|---|
| utilitarian     | liberties                                   |
| deontological   | theory of ethics emphasizing absolute rules |
| negative rights | a consequentialist theory of ethics         |

2. True/False

- _____ There are instances in which a legal act might not be an ethical act.
- _____ Most problems raised by new technology have never been seen before.
- _____ Changes in phone technology have led to increased privacy concerns.
- _____ Researchers are developing brain-computer interfaces to enable severely handicapped people to control appliances with their thoughts.

3. Multiple Choice

- Which of the following is an example of a negative right?
  - freedom of speech, as provided in the U.S. Constitution
  - freedom of religion, as provided in the U.S. Constitution
  - the right to work
  - all of the above
- Positive rights ...
  - are rights to act without interference
  - are guaranteed in the First Amendment
  - impose an obligation on some people to provide certain things for others
  - all of the above
- Adapting to new technology can require adapting ...
  - laws
  - business policies
  - personal attitudes and behaviors
  - all of the above